Kintyre Holdings (JA) Limited (KNTYR) – Senior Leadership Appointments

Kingston, Jamaica – Kintyre Holdings (JA) Limited ("Kintyre" or "the Company") has announced a series of strategic senior leadership appointments as the Company accelerates its expansion and positions itself for its next phase of growth.

The Company has appointed Adrian Smith as Deputy Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer (CIO), effective April 1, 2026.

Mr. Smith currently serves as President & Chief Executive Officer of Affinity Ventures Group Limited (trading as BOLD), Kintyre's Manufacturing & Distribution arm. He has been a Director of Kintyre Holdings since 2022 and continues to serve as an Executive Director.

Mr. Smith holds a Bachelor's degree in Finance from the University of Tampa and brings extensive experience in capital markets, investment strategy, and business development.

In his expanded role, he will oversee the Company's investment strategy, capital allocation, and execution across its portfolio, while supporting overall corporate strategy and long-term value creation.

Commenting on the appointment, Tyrone Wilson, CEO of Kintyre Holdings, stated:

"Adrian has been a Director since 2022 and continues to serve as an Executive Director. I see him as a valuable partner and an important member of the team and the future of Kintyre Holdings. His leadership, strategic mindset, and execution capability will play a critical role as we continue to build and expand our investment platform."

The Company has also appointed Shameel Brown as Chief Corporate Affairs & Communications Officer, effective April 20, 2026.

In this role, Ms. Brown will serve as Company Secretary, lead the Company's communications strategy, and head the Kintyre Holdings Foundation – the Company's social impact and community development arm.

Ms. Brown brings a strong record in project coordination, stakeholder engagement, and administrative management. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Sociology & Social Policy from the University of the West Indies, Mona, and is currently completing a Master of Science in International Public & Development Management at UWI, Mona.

Wilson commented:

"Shameel brings a rare combination of administrative discipline, communications acumen, and genuine commitment to community. She will be instrumental in shaping how Kintyre engages with the public, our stakeholders, and the communities we serve through the Foundation. We are delighted to welcome her to the leadership team."

The Company also announced that Jahmar Clarke has resigned from his post of Company Secretary effective April 20, 2026, having served the Company since December 2023. Mr. Clarke will continue to serve as an Advisor and Legal Representative to Kintyre Holdings and its subsidiaries.

Wilson noted:

"Jahmar has been an integral part of our journey and has provided sound legal counsel and strategic guidance since joining us in 2023. We are grateful for his contributions and are pleased that he remains a trusted advisor and legal representative to the Company and our subsidiaries."

The Company also announced that Jasmin Asan resigned from her role as Chief Business Officer, effective March 31, 2026. The role will be temporarily be filled by Tristan Williams who was recently appointed as Commercial Director for Visual Vibe.

Wilson noted:

"Jasmin has been instrumental in several of our Visual Vibe partnerships and has played a key role in the growth of the business. We thank her for her contribution and wish her the very best in her future endeavors."
